

10th JCG fête japonaise Volunteer Recruitment

Sunday, 8th October 2023 at Place de Sardaigne, Carouge

We are recruiting volunteers to help at the Japan Festival.

We are currently seeking volunteers to assist at the Japan Festival, an event celebrating Japanese culture and traditions.

About the Festival:

The JCG Japanese Festival is a collaborative effort fueled by a dedicated group of volunteers. These individuals play a crucial role in ensuring the smooth execution of the event. Their responsibilities include guiding visitors, supporting stage performances and programs, assisting at the children's plaza and food stalls, helping with setup and dismantling, and providing guidance at the reception desk, among other tasks.

On the day of the event:

On the day of the festival, a team of approximately 200 volunteers, all wearing coordinated T-shirts, will be present to enhance the festival experience for our guests. These volunteers come not only from Japan but also from the local community, united by their shared passion for Japanese culture and their eagerness to engage with its essence.

The Executive Committee:

The Executive Committee eagerly anticipates the involvement of numerous volunteers to ensure the success of the Japan Festival. Your collaboration is greatly valued. Let's work together to make the Japan Festival even more vibrant and joyful!

Eligibility Criteria:

1. Must be 15 years and older. (Note: Beer sales at the drink bar are limited to individuals aged 18 and above.)
2. Middle school students under 15 years of age can apply with parental accompaniment.
3. Individuals who are available from morning preparations through evening teardown are welcome. Break times will be provided during shifts. A minimum commitment of 3 hours is required.
